

Robert D. McNulty was born in Meriden in 1927. Bob attended Meriden Schools, and graduated from Meriden High School. After his military service during WWII in the U.S. Navy Bob attended the University of Niagara where he graduated in 1950, Magna Cum Laude. After college, He worked for the John F. Molloy Co., for nine years. In 1962 Bob was named the Deputy Director of the Meriden Redevelopment Agency (MRA) and in 1966 he was appointed Executive Director of the Meriden Housing Authority (MHA). Bob spent the next 18 years improving housing opportunities for Meriden's low income and Elderly; Among his many accomplishments, he considers the following as major: Community Towers, Willow St.; Rehabilitation of the Willow Court Apartments; the sale of Chamberlain Heights to the Federal Govt.; the sale of single Family houses to the then current residents; the development of Harbor Brook Towers; and the relocation of the MHA offices to a central Downtown location. After retirement from the MHA IN 1984, Bob became an independent contractor for "Freddie Mac". Bob has been continually involved with his Hometown, through his Church, Jaycees, Elks Club, and other volunteer organizations. Bob was president of the CT National Association of Housing and redevelopment officials (NAHRO). His MHA involvement led him to various National levels of the Housing Industry, including being the First Chair of the National NAHRO Professionals Committee and being elected to the National NAHRO Board of Directors.